Dear Bruce:

It is my pleasure to advise you of your selection as a Designers' Choice Award recipient, to be published in HOME & DESIGN's 2013 Sourcebook edition.

Sharon Jaffe Dan, our editor-in-chief, and I would like to personally recognize your selection at this year's Designers' Choice Awards reception on Thursday, September 27, 2012, from 6-8 pm at the ROOM & BOARD showroom, located at 1840 14th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20009.

Your Designers' Choice Award is the result of voting by area designers and architects on their top picks for everything - from kitchen cabinetry and countertops, to top design professionals and service providers. We are so pleased to recognize you as a winner in the Favorite Design/Build Firm category.

The 2013 HOME & DESIGN Sourcebook is presently in production for its September publication. We will soon be contacting you for relevant photos and information.

Please save the September 27 date for this year's awards and industry networking event. Congratulations!

Sincerely,

Julie Sanders
Sourcebook Editor
